Attached is the SFHQ(A) ISAF 2 LO report on a TPE meeting today along with a TPE's written document following enquiries into SU1's Obj's TYBURN (15 Feb 11) and Obj 9 (13 Mar 11). It should be read in full.

Â

A TPE raise concerns with TTPs that were used by SU1 at the time, specifically the use of occupants to help clear a compound. Specific points raised include:

* Concern that SU1 put these individuals at additional risk whilst they were under ISAF protection.
* Scepticism about the willingness of the occupants.
* Interest in further dialogue with "UK authorities" on this and related matters linked to Afghan casualties.
Finally a TPE request
a review of UK TTPs, which has already occurred (twice) since these events.
Furthermore the imminent review of the Night Raids Directive may impose further changes to SFHQ(A) TTPs that would mitigate many of a TPE's concerns.

we have just completed our meeting [REDACTED] with a TPE [REDACTED], a summary of which is detailed below.

a TPE attendee(s)

At the start of the meeting, [REDACTED] A TPE handed over two copies [REDACTED] of a written document which will be sent to SFHQ(A) by SFHQ(A) LNO [REDACTED] a scan is attached.

The document is based on a [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] a practice of using occupants that had obeyed calls to leave compounds to then return into the compounds to ensure all people had exited or to open doors and windows. [REDACTED] A TPE [REDACTED] were unaware of this practice prior to the meeting on DG May. The [REDACTED] document refers to a specific occasion on 15 Feb 2011(Obj TYBURN) and 13 Mar 2011(not Known) [REDACTED] a TPE have [REDACTED] expressed a number of concerns [REDACTED] regarding this practice [REDACTED]

Name Given [REDACTED] explained the cultural sensitivities regarding Afghan compounds and stated that the practice was intended to reduce the danger of civilian casualties, not reduce the danger to military personnel. [REDACTED] A TPE [REDACTED] position being, if two of the individuals killed in the operation on 15 Feb had not been taken back into the compound they would not have been able to pose further threat.

There were some general questions asked on UK ROE, the Tactical Directive, Night Raid Directive, National caveats and Detention chains, during which [REDACTED] a TPE [REDACTED] aired [REDACTED] a belief that the UK SOF tended to have a high rate of kills on "Capture/Kill" missions. The point was made that the UK conduct detention operations, not Capture/kill and the figures were disputed.

The overall tone of the meeting was relaxed and friendly.

Thanks. I note that a copy is to be sent to PJHQ. In light of their recent response to some of our operations, I intend to engage them on this as to the best way to respond to the letter.

I think we will need to give serious thought to a considered response given the issues raised.

I also note the reference to the meeting [REDACTED] when a TPE mentioned [REDACTED] our high 'kill' stats: what do they base that on?
