The one I mentioned today was Obj 1 (9 EKIA). I had already cottoned onto this one and will make some further enquiries today although this alleges that there was a 'red on red' which accounted for 4 of them. However there is a recent trend I think of the 'x bodies' with 'x minus 3 weapons' recovered.

Is this the one you were referring to this morning? If not, it's another one of "more bodies than weapons". Please review.
