[REDACTED] N2252

It is a case 'more bodies than weapons' - but with 4 of the EKIA being a result of fratricide.

I enclose my comments on the SINCREP - ultimately on the face of it the actions appear to be within the ROE. We could order a SIR into it if you feel that there are more questions than answers but my view is that there has been an explanation as to why there was such a high body count.

I am happy to discuss further.

Is this the one you were referring to this morning? If not, it's another one of "more bodies than weapons". Please review.
