Matt,

An IRTB that was sent up to which I have not yet received a response, but will chase as it may well have just slipped off the radar/been overtaken by other priorities. This was raised by Jase today during the meeting with all the team leads.

Kind Regards

Tina

BUDGET AUTHORITY FOR DSTL COSTS

Issue.

1. Budget authority is sought to fund the search for archived material relevant to NORTHMOOR enquiries, held by [redacted] DSTL.

Recommendation.

2. SO1 NORTHMOOR Team is invited to approve the following:

   a. A provisional budget of £10,362 to search and where appropriate recover archived material held by [redacted] DSTL.

Timing. Routine.

Background.

3. NORTHMOOR Team enquiries have established that potential evidence (weapon systems, media and documentation), recovered by UK Forces during 11 specific operations may be held in archive at [redacted] DSTL. Any recovered materiel is likely to form evidence in subsequent proceedings. Under the provisions of CPIA 96, RMP have a statutory duty to identify relevant evidence and disclose where necessary.

4. Dstl have confirmed there is no budget in place to cover the costs of this task and have provided a provisional costing of £10,362.48, to achieve the aim.

Summary.

5. If this is not authorised, essential evidence may be overlooked and fail to provide for a prompt and effective investigation. The MOD may also be criticised for failing to disclose relevant materiel at any future proceedings.
